The Cincinnatus Association, founded in 1920 by Cincinnati leaders to fight corruption in City government, is now comprised of 100 community leaders committed to initiating, participating in, and promoting projects that improve the quality of life for the citizens in Greater Cincinnati. The efforts of Cincinnatus are coordinated and attributed to organizational sub-groups, known as panels, each delegated a specific area of the Association's overall mission. The Excellence in Government panel focuses on the effectiveness and efficiency of local and state government; Excellence in Education on improvement and support of public education; Community Inclusion on uniting all citizens across racial, ethnic, economic, and religious boundaries; and Arts & Culture on improvement and support of arts and culture organizations.
