Citizen Cincinnatus Award of Excellence Nomination Form

(Page 2)

The Award

Since 1994, The Cincinnatus Association has annually presented the Citizen Cincinnatus Award of Excellence to its own outstanding member. This award recognizes the exceptional contribution of an individual to the work of a panel, committee or a special assignment. The intent is to both reward the past exemplary work of an individual and encourage increased panel participation which is the lifeblood of The Cincinnatus Association. Formerly called the Citizen Crusader Award.

Eligibility

Any member of The Cincinnatus Association may be nominated except members of the Executive Committee and Panel Chairpersons. (Panel Vice-Chairpersons are eligible.)

Nomination

1. Nomination may only be submitted by a member of The Cincinnatus Association.
2. Nomination may be submitted using the Citizen Award Nomination Form, or by providing the same information in written or email form, to the address indicated.
3. Nomination must be submitted to the Secretary prior to the deadline established.

Selection of Award Winner

The Executive Committee of The Cincinnatus Association has the sole privilege and responsibility of selecting the winner. The opinions and advice of the respective committees, panels and individual members are considered key factor in this decision.

Selection Criteria

While there are no specific or formal guidelines, the intent is to recognize a panel member who has done his or her job with gusto and thus been an example for others. Any exceptional contribution can be recognized, such as:

- Regularly attending panel or committee meetings and participating in a meaningful discussion.
- Coming up with a creative idea which developed into an important project.
- Writing an important report for a panel in an especially artful manner.
- Organizing a panel presentation.
- Taking the lead on a project.
- Spending an extraordinary amount of time on a project.
- Raising funds for a project.
- Making a brilliant presentation to the organization.
- Handling a sensitive issue in an especially competent manner.
- Giving persuasive testimony at a public hearing on behalf of Cincinnatus.
- Otherwise performing the assigned job in an excellent manner.
