

WHO ARE WE?

A STRATEGIC VIEW OF OUR REGION'S CHANGING
DEMOGRAPHICS FOR NONPROFIT & CIVIC ORGANIZATIONS

This free event is designed to provide leaders of the community's charitable and civic sector organizations with a strategic view of our region's changing demographics and what they mean for the achievement of our community's Bold Goals in the areas of Education, Income and Health.

Thursday, December 1, 2011

2:00 – 5:30 p.m.

Fifth Third Convening Center at United Way of Greater Cincinnati

R.s.v.p.: impact@uwgc.org

Featuring:

- Warren A. Brown, Ph.D., director of the Program on Applied Demographics at Cornell University
- Community leaders in the areas of Education, Income and Health

Meet & Greet Reception At 5:00 P.M., Following Program

Brought to you by United Way of Greater Cincinnati and the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland, Cincinnati Branch.

Additional co-sponsors:

For further information:

Terry Grundy
United Way of Greater Cincinnati
513 762 7150
terry.grundy@uwgc.org

LaVaughn Henry, Ph.D.
Federal Reserve Bank of
Cleveland, Cincinnati Branch
513 455 4206
lavaughn.henry@clev.frb.org